

WALTER ELWOOD MUSEUM

OF THE MOHAWK VALLEY

FALL 2010 NEWSLETTER

A Letter from the Executive Director

It's been a great year at the Walter Elwood Museum and there have been so many exciting changes since the Museum's last newsletter! Our move into Guy Park Manor along the majestic banks of the Mohawk River at Lock 11 is complete and all of our displays are open to the public.

We owe our gratitude to NYS Department of Parks and Recreation for entrusting us with the use of this historic building. And we are thankful to have the continued support of the New York State Canal Corporation in helping us maintain our grounds. Please take some time to come and see our beautiful exhibit rooms which include the Children's Toy Room, the Military Room, the research library, the Victorian Parlor, the Amsterdam Industrial Room, the award-winning Walter Elwood DISCOVERY room, and the always popular Natural History "Animal" room. Native American Indian artifacts are showcased in our second floor foyer featuring the Max Reid Collection, and the artwork of Amsterdam artists is displayed in our first floor foyer showcasing Mary Van Der Veer, John Harvey and many more. Our charming gift shop is filled with collectibles and offers many books by local authors including Robert Going, Stephen Haven, Louis Hildebrandt, Robert von Hasseln and Gerald R. Snyder.

Clearly the arts, culture and museums have been playing a positive role in bringing New York out of this economic quagmire as proven by the significant increase in tourism at New York State museums by 62.5% over the past two years despite statewide funding cuts. Come take a tour and see what the Walter Elwood Museum has to offer. Become a new member, renew your current membership, make a donation or sponsor an event. We rely on your support to keep our doors open year round. YOUR donations will provide educational programming to children and adults and bring our community together to preserve the collections which we are so fortunate to have. As we kick off our 2011 membership drive, I invite you to join us in moving the Walter Elwood Museum into the future. Thank you for your continued support!

— Ann M. Peconie, Executive Director

A Note from the Board President

It is an exhilarating time to be a part of the Museum, and as we kick off our 2011 Membership Drive, I invite you all to join me and become a part of preserving our local history. The move to our new site at Guy Park Manor is complete and all of our exhibit rooms are open for public viewing. The building looks great and the number of artifacts on display has significantly increased. We extend our sincere gratitude to Dr. Govind Rao for his recent contributions to the Museum to fund our Summer Camp programming for children, as well as the addition of new signage and classroom makeover. I would like to thank our members for supporting us through our relocation and renewing their memberships during these difficult economic times. Your support is even more vital now that we are completely independent from the Amsterdam School District and no longer receive funding from the City of Amsterdam. Look for new and exciting fund-raising events in the coming months like our Silpada jewelry sale at Raindancer Restaurant in November. Please visit the museum and see all of the hard work our staff and volunteers have done to make Guy Park Manor our home.

This year, the Museum held the 29th Annual Ice Cream Social, which in 2010, became known as Summer Fest. On a hot summer July evening, over 1,200 people filled the lawn surrounding Guy Park Manor. Guests were treated to an evening of family fun and entertainment, including delicious food and baked treats, carnival games, bounce rides, music and wares from a wide variety of vendors. Over 60 classic cars and hot rods were on display in the car show, and 10 lucky car owners took home trophies for their prized vehicles. International award-winning photographer, Chaman S. Rathore, was the evening's special guest, with several of his photos on display throughout the Museum. Many thanks to Stewarts Shops, DJ Mike Sylvia, Miller Printing, Mohawk Dairy, Sievert's Sports, Adirondack Septic, Amsterdam Police, GAVAC, Joan Krohn, Frank Yarasezski, Harry Piurek, Mark Perfetti and all of our bakers and volunteers.

Car enthusiasts from the region participated in the Museum's annual car show at Summer Fest.

2010 Museum Camps for Kids

We have had a very busy year in the Dr. Rao Educational wing with children's camp days. Many thanks to Dr. Govind Rao, Children's Aid Association, Fidelis Care and National Grid for underwriting the cost of our kids' camps and making it possible for us to provide educational programming to over 200 area children this year.

2010 marked our first Martin Luther King Camp Day in January at which we studied the cultural masks in the Museum's collection from Alaska, Africa and South America. Each child made their own mask to take home and enjoy. In February, we celebrated President's Day by viewing all the vintage puzzles in the collection and kids made a variety of their own puzzles.

During April, we enjoyed a three-day camp with "Springtime at the Manor", studying seasonal routines such as churning butter, cleaning flax and wool and more. The kids made butter and enjoyed the fruits of their labor during snack time. The week ended with Alaskan Totem Pole Art, and we studied the many small size examples of totem pole art in our Alaskan Collection. Each child created their own personalized totem pole story art.

The 2010 Summer Camp featured five weeks of exciting themes including Native American Indians, Nature Lovers, Healthy Kids, Art, Science with George Steele and our Organic Garden and Craft Club.

Some fantastic camp days are planned for this fall and winter including Columbus Day, Veteran's Day and more. Call us for a flier or visit our website at www.walterelwoodmuseum.org to view a registration form.

An Evening at the Manor

On a beautiful spring evening in May, over 200 guests attended the sold-out Grand Re-opening Gala to celebrate the Museum's official opening in its new home. Guy Park Manor welcomed visitors to the newly-completed exhibits. Guests were treated to performances from the Musicians of Ma'alwyck and harpist Karlinda Kaldicott. Union Hall Inn provided the delicious hors d'oeuvres and desserts. Special guests Rob Von Hasseln and Gerald R. Snyder were on hand to sign copies of their recently-released book, Amsterdam-A Postcard History. Special thanks to Black Bear Wine & Spirits, Miller Printing, White Cottage Gardens and Kerri Stabile.
