Walter Elwood Museum Announces Free Open House at New Site This Saturday from 3-6 p.m.

For Immediate Release

Amsterdam, NY [10/20/2013] –The Board of Trustees of the Walter Elwood Museum is pleased to announce the grand Re-Opening of the Museum at our new site at 100 Church Street on Saturday, October 26th, 2013 from 3:00 to 6:00 pm.

Drop by the Museum's new expansive site at 100 Church Street for a free tour of the building and exhibits. Many artifacts on exhibit will be remembered by many from the Manor and Guy Park School sites. Kyle's Bounce House will be onsite to entertain the children as well as light refreshments will be available.

Local and regional authors will also be in our Native American conference room to sign their latest books. Stop by and buy a book to support the Museum and have it signed by the author. Bob Cudmore, Robert Going, Chuck D'Imperio of Oneonta and Carl Strock of the Daily Gazette will all be on hand to discuss their books and sign copies.

In addition, our gift shop will be open for holiday and gift shopping. Museum Board members will be about to renew or sign you up to be a WEM member. We will be asking open house attendees if they would like to volunteer and help us continue to improve exhibits and history and background of many of our artifacts. There are a variety of ways to volunteer.

The Walter Elwood Museum is the only local history museum located in the city of Amsterdam open year-round and offers programming and events to the families and youth of our area. For additional information about our Open House or to make a donation to the Museum please contact Ann Peconie at 518.843.5151.
